

KCC Library Offer

How we can help you with your dyslexia

- A card for people with dyslexia which allows you to borrow book for three weeks with no late fines. Just ask at any Kent Library for more details.
- Talking books can be borrowed free of charge
- Free requests: adults and young people can order books and talking books free of charge
- Free printouts and photocopies on tinted paper
- Books on dyslexia and books for adults and young people struggling to read.
- Free computer access for one hour every day in any of our libraries. (Under 16s need parental permission to use the internet) with software to support planning, reading and writing.
- Online resources: information on health, careers and a great deal more!
- Dyslexia resources and aids to help with reading and writing
- Homework clubs with special resources including pen holders, electronic dictionaries and overlays

For more information contact Liz Taylor on 01622 696512 or email elizabeth.taylor@kent.gov.uk